[redacted]

[redacted]

a) Asked the Director if he had an opportunity to read the message from [redacted] regarding his talk with [redacted]
The Director said he had and with great interest and asked if it was being circulated. [redacted] said that it was -- as a [redacted] The DCI asked that the portion referring to the offer of aid be omitted.

b) Noted that when the IDC was formed there were no subcommittees of the IAC as such and commented it was his understanding it is now proposed that the IDC become a subcommittee of the IAC. The Director said he saw no objection to this and in fact would recommend it. [REDACTED] 25X1 remarked that the "transfer" has been provided for in the revision of NSCID #4.

Mr. Wisner:

25X1 [REDACTED] 25X1

Col. White:

Reported on the assets of [REDACTED] and noted he was preparing 25X1 a memorandum for record on this subject.

25X1 [REDACTED] 25X1

Mr. Sheldon:

Noted that General Cassidy, Staff Director, President's Board of Consultants, had requested that he be put on dissemination for all future minutes of USCIB meetings. Mr. Kirkpatrick commented that he has also requested IAC minutes. The Director stated he saw no reason why the President's Board should not receive the minutes in question, however, as a matter of courtesy General Cassidy's request should be taken up in executive session at the next IAC meeting. ACTION: DD/I.

Mr. Amory:

Suggested that the Director might wish to invite Cabot Lodge for a debriefing as a result of his recent trip to India. DCI agreed. ACTION:
